TYPEWRITER MISSING.

Louise Helmer Disappears From Her Home—She Was Despondent.

Louise Helmer, a stenographer 35 years old, has been missing from her home the past two days and her parents, who reside at 8423 Illinois avenue, have asked the police to aid in locating her. Louise left home yesterday morning to seek employment and she did not return. As she is a very modest and home-loving young lady, her friends are greatly astounded at her absence. The young lady has been very dejected over her failure to obtain employment.

When she left home she wore a dark green dress and a light cape. She is about 5 feet 2 inches tall and is dark complexioned.

SITUATION AT BLUEFIELDS.

The English Practically in Control—Americans Not Satisfied.

New Orleans, La., March 22.—The steamer William G. Howes of the Southern Pacific line arrived here last night from Bluefields, Nicaragua. According to the passengers the English are in practical control of the police protection of the city. The English flagship Blake has arrived to relieve the Cleopatra, which is expected to leave shortly.

Lacey still remains in Bluefields, but his position is not recognized. Several days ago he received word from the President of Nicaragua, telling him to place fifty men on guard to serve as a patrol and to count on 1,000 more if he needed them. On the advice of the commander of the Cleopatra Lacey refused to do this, and even sent away the remainder of the force which captured the town six weeks ago.

The Americans hardly like the way the English have taken control of affairs, but have written a communication to the American Consul, stating that they will be satisfied with any Government save that of Nicaragua.

Walker on Bankers.

This morning and yesterday afternoon meetings were held by the members of the Mercantile Club, Merchants' Exchange, and the local Bankers' Association at whose invitation Hon. Joseph H. Walker of Massachusetts will lecture to-night at Memorial Hall. Mr. Walker is a prominent member of the Congressional Committee on Banking and Currency, and he will speak at length to-night on "National Finance and Bankruptcy." Representatives of local financial institutions are anticipating quite a large amount of enlightenment, and it is believed there will be a large attendance among outsiders who take an interest in what is one of the leading questions of the hour.

There is humor and pathos, laughter and tears in Nat C. Goodwin's new play by August Thomas, "In Missouri," now at the Grand Opera-house.

Joseph Huerbman's Soloists.

As published in the Post-Dispatch last evening, Joseph Huerbman, a shoe-maker 35 years old, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by putting a bullet into his brain at his home, 3177 Shaw avenue, where he lived alone. In his room were found three or four sealed letters addressed to his brother, Joseph Huerbman, who works at the Argentine Smelting Co.'s plant at Kansas City.

Nat C. Goodwin plays "In Missouri" at the Grand to-night.

PARK LAKE WORK.

There Are Employed To-day 425 Men. 91 Double Teams and 14 Carts.

To-day work on the Forest Park Lake is again in full swing, the lake cut being thoroughly drained and in condition to make excavation practicable.

There are 425 laborers employed on the work, 91 double teams and 14 carts. Excavation of the lake cut is being carried forward along its entire length and a visit to the park now reveals the full outline of the Park Lake as it will be when completed.

Fifty additional laborers have to-day been notified to report at the lake for work on Monday morning next. As often as it is possible to the practical prosecution of the work changes in the force will be made, permitting the employment of others of the men who have registered at the Post-Dispatch office.

AN ACTRESS ROBBED.

A London Theater Usher Charged With the Theft of Jewelry and Money.

A warrant charging Jim Hill, a former usher at the London Theater, with grand larceny, was issued this morning on complaint of Mae Brown, an actress at the theater. Miss Brown states that on last Tuesday she left a package containing $280 worth of jewelry and $70 in money on her dresser in her room at 610 South Fourth street and went out for a short while. Hill occupied an adjoining room, and was quite intimate with her. It is said. On this occasion Hill returned to his room and found the package missing. Since then she has tried to have Hill located in this city, but learned that he had fled to the South. Later she learned that he had been seen in Memphis, Tenn. The warrant obtained this morning was turned over to the police, who will try to secure the arrest of the alleged fugitive from justice.

AN OLD MAN ROBBED.—An old man giving the name of Pat. Mulroney of East St. Louis was robbed of $12 yesterday afternoon by two young men. Farmer Jordan of 2720 Randolph street was arrested on suspicion of being one of the men.

CAVALRY ASSOCIATION BANQUET.—The St. Louis Light Cavalry Association will give its fourth annual banquet on Saturday, April 7. The following committee has been appointed to make all necessary arrangements: Capt. John B. Thomas, Ladies; John Howard and E. S. Abadie.

GRAND AVENUE LINE PLANS APPROVED.—The Board of Public Improvement Committee has approved the plans of the Grand Avenue Railway Co. and the construction of the road will begin within two months. The officers of the company are: President, George C. Moulton; Vice President, Ralph E. Harty; James J. Sargent, Thomas M. Turner, Margarette G. Squire, Ada Walton and Mary E. Wolfe.

NOT CARED BY STRIKERS.—The striking employees at William Proctor's upholstery and mattress factory are still firm in their determination not to accept the cut in wages, and the firm are resolved to enforce the cut. Mr. Proctor declared that he attributes the fire in his building to the strikers, and that it is organized, he believes, with a view to forcing the strikers to accept the cut.

HOMOPATHIC COLLEGE GRADUATES.—The Homoeopathic Medical College of Missouri held its thirty-fifth annual commencement exercises at the Rickwick Theater last night. The graduates were: Wm. H. Baker, Robert C. Grant, Edward J. Hall, Alfred W. Haywood, Louis W. Minick, John A. Yorkhead, George C. Moulton, Scott E. Parsons, Ralph E. Harty, James J. Sargent, Thomas M. Turner, Margarette G. DEMOCRATS DEPART.

The Conference Adjourns After Adopting a Plan of Organization.

The Democratic Conference at Entertainment Hall closed its business last night and adjourned. The full plan of organization adopted was as follows:

1. That the basis of representation for delegates to the Congressional, Judicial, Senatorial and County Conventions be made upon the vote cast for presidential electors at the election preceding the calling of such conventions.

2. That the County Committees of the various counties in the State, when they call County Conventions for the purpose of selecting delegates to the District and State Conventions, include within their call the selection only of delegates to District or State Conventions, and in no event ought a County Committee issue a call for a County Convention (or mass meeting) to select delegates to any convention which has not been called and the basis of representation to which has not been fixed by the properly constituted authorities; provided that this recommendation shall not affect the acts of any committee heretofore taken.

3. In those senatorial and judicial districts of the State which have now no organization, that at the first meeting of said senatorial or judicial conventions they elect and organize senatorial and judicial committees, and that the Central Committee from such townships shall be organized the chairman of the county committee of the counties composing said unorganized senatorial or judicial districts act as such senatorial or judicial committee.

4. That in counties there shall be selected a County Central Committee, to consist of one member from each township; that in townships there shall be collected a committee of three, who shall co-operate with the member of the Central Committee from such township, such member being ex-officio chairman of the township committee.

5. That in the cities there shall be elected from each city a committee of five, who shall elect a precinct committee from said precinct, and that the Central Committee from each ward shall elect a committeeman to represent the ward in the City Central Committee.

Most of the delegates to the convention left the city last night.

USION PACIFIC EMPLOYEES.

If Their Terms Are Not Conceded They May Go Out on a Strike.

OMAHA, Neb., March 22.—Having failed to get a wage schedule from Receiver Clark, even through the order of the Federal Court, the Union Pacific employees have decided to take the advice of President Debs of the American Railway Union. His suggestion was that the delegates empower their various chairmen to get together into a committee of action and draft an agreement which would be satisfactory to them, and which would give them what they thought would be their due. This plan will be presented to Receiver Clark, and if he finds that he cannot accede to its provisions the men will discover that "they cannot any longer remain in the service of the Union Pacific Railway receivers." In accordance with this idea the conference closed.

SILVER CONVENTION.

Its Labor at Des Moines Finished—Text of the Resolutions Adopted.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 22.—The National Silver Convention closed its labors here last night. The topic of the day was "What Is the Proper Remedy and How It May Be Best Applied." Ignatius Donnelly in his speech said: "The demonstration of silver was a colossal conspiracy and crime, the greatest ever perpetrated against the human family. It was a crime against the people." A. F. Bray, ex-speaker of the Montana Legislature, said that the Capital would yet be in the West in recognition of the rights of the West.

S. King of Kansas City said that the North, South and West had gathered together to study their own interests.

The following resolutions were adopted by the League before adjourning:

Whereas, The terrible conditions which now exist in our country is due to the crime of the demonizing of silver, which has increased the purchasing power of gold, decreased the value of all commodities, closed our mines, shops and factories, and bankrupted our business men; and

Whereas, Three-fourths of the people of this country are in favor of the full redemption of silver, and opposed to the present single gold standard; and

Whereas, Silver was stricken down by fraud, through the gold conspirators in the old political parties, notwithstanding the direct pledges of both of their national platforms to the contrary; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recommend that the nominations for Congress in the several districts shall be made by the friends of free silver who are unopposedly in favor of the unrestricted coinage of gold and silver on the basis of 16 to 1, and whose past acts are the best guarantee of their good faith, and who will stand on the resolutions adopted by this convention, and that no nomination be made either by political organizations which are known to be positively in favor of free silver, or by independent assemblies of men of all parties; the candidates being pledged, if elected, in case the election of President of the United States is thrown into the House of Representatives, that they will vote for such candidate as is known to be earnestly in favor of free coinage.

Swallowd a Nail.

BERLINGTON, Ia., March 22.—A 6-year-old boy, the son of Geo. Malah of 1077 Barclay street, in this city, swallowed an eight penny nail about 15 inches long, and big enough to choke a horse, but it had no more effect on young Malah than if he had swallowed a piece of straw. The nail was played, slept, ate and drank as usual over Sunday. Physicians worked with the boy for two days last week without effect. They feared the cure was as little short of miraculous.

WILL ENFORCE HIS EDICT.

Archbishop Kain Discusses Fr. Phelan's Latest Utterance.

When shown this morning a copy of Fr. Phelan's letter in the last issue of the Freeman Archbishop Kain smiled and waved it away, saying: "I have read it, I have read it. If you want to know what I have to say in answer to Fr. Phelan's reply to the censure of himself and the Wideman, which was read in the churches last Sunday, it is simply this: Fr. Phelan should be obedient to the law of the church and to his Archbishop and cease writing such things as these."

Archbishop Kain was at the Cathedral on Walnut street, where he had posted at 9 o'clock mass. He was hurried at the interview and the subject was evidently distasteful to him. After saying so much he arose to leave, but seated himself again when the reporter asked:

"What do you anticipate will be the outcome?"

"I anticipate," he replied, "that Fr. Phelan will excuse himself for his breach of discipline and unbecomeliness and retract what he has written. Otherwise all the priests and parishioners will have to give up the paper and cease supporting it."

"Then the censure of interdict will be enforced strictly?"

"Yes, there is no recourse until Fr. Phelan changes his course. Of course it must be enforced. No, nothing more will be said in the churches. I read what was read last Sunday as quite sufficient."

Archbishop Kain did not care to enter into the various points raised by the reply of Fr. Phelan and again rose and closed the interview.

Daniel Price was sentenced to thirty-six years in the penitentiary at St. Louis, Mo., for the murder of Robert Reed last June.

SANDOW AND SHUGART.

Wrestle at New Sportman's Park Sunday—To-Morrow's Game.

If the weather is favorable to-morrow afternoon the St. Louis Browns will play a local amateur team at New Sportman's Park. This will be Capt. George Miller's first game with the Browns, while Arthur Clarkson will also make his initial appearance in a St. Louis uniform this season. Sunday afternoon the Browns play Paul McGowan's Belleville Club, previous to this game Frank Shugart and Sandow, the strong man, will wrestle two bouts catch-as-catch-can and Greco-Roman in front of the grand stand.

It is very likely that the Cincinnati and St. Louis Browns will make one of those lightning-like jumps the coming season. On June 18 the Browns play in Philadelphia and the Browns in Baltimore. The Browns and St. Louis are scheduled to play in St. Louis on June 18, leaving Sunday, June 17, open. Now, the idea is for the Browns and the Reds to jump to Cincinnati and get in the Sunday game. It will take some rapid running to leave Philadelphia after the game on Saturday and get to Cincinnati in time to play on Sunday. The Browns have to run the entire route at the rate of 40 miles an hour. President Von der Ahe has agreed to play this game and is now figuring on a special train.

A Brakeman Injured.

MARSHFIELD, Mo., March 22.—A peculiar accident occurred to a freight train here. A stock train, leaving the Springfield-Tripco yards at 10:30 a. m. for St. Louis, was speeding along three miles east of Marshfield, when a bar from a drive-wheel on the engine came loose. It ran one and a half feet from the ground and the other, through the engine cab, striking head brakeman Bradley on the thigh. It tore nearly all the flesh off his leg and badly fractured the bone.

CRIME ENCOURAGED.

The acceptance of pleas of guilt from criminals under agreement that light punishment will be inflicted has come to be one of the worst evils in the Criminal Code of this city. It operates under the incompetency and crookedness prevailing

in the prosecution of criminals as an outrageous defeat of justice.

Yesterday an old scoundrel, who was under indictment for criminally assaulting three little girls between the ages of 8 and 11 years, was let off on a plea of guilty

in the case with a term of two years in the penitentiary. This man had committed the vilest crimes on the calendar upon three separate victims. Two of his tender victims were so brutally maltreated

that they are permanently injured. One third of this human fiend's villainy has aroused communities to a fury of vengeance. He merited death and he got two years' imprisonment. It was a miserable travesty of justice.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Bamberger, one of those inhuman creatures who live on crime, was under indictment for malpractice. Contrary to the usual experience in cases of this kind ample testimony to convict the woman was secured, but the opportunity to make a warning example of her punishment was lost through the agreement of the prosecution to let her off with light punishment under a plea of guilt. She escaped with the payment of a fine.

These cases are samples of many other misarrangements of justice which are disgraceful enough to make the heavens blush

for our maladministration of criminal law.

The patience of the people of St. Louis is tried beyond endurance by such shielding

of criminals and encouragement of crime.

THAT "BUSTED" CONSPIRACY.

There was apparent unanimity in the conference of Democratic committeemen in this city, but the unanimity was on the basis of unwavering adherence to the expression convictions of the Democrats of Missouri, not on the basis of subser-vice cuckooism. The harmonious union of the gathering only bore out Gov. Stone's remark that "we really appear to be a very happy family." But all this unanimity has come about since the little whirlwind of the last two weeks has shown how protest may develop into a hurricane of resentment.

The hypocritical smile of the cuckoo

organ and its attendant band of politicians over the outcome of the meeting cloaks profound grief. All their plans have gone a-pley. The conspiracy cooked in the councils of the cuckoo band has been exposed and smashed for the time.

When the State Committee set an early date for the State convention and called

the conference of County Committeemen

the plan was carefully laid to manipulate

the convention in the twin interests of corporations and cuckooism. A part of this plan was the double-headed appeal of the cuckoo Republic for the President and the Missouri delegation to "get together," followed by the scheme

to rope Senators Vest and Cockrell

into a discreditable bargain through the mediation of Ex-Gov. Francis. The failure of this plot to inveigle the Missouri Senators and Representatives

into subservience was succeeded by persistent and insidious attacks on them for not "getting together" and

"standing in" with the Administration

for the purpose of spoils distribution.

This cuckoo campaign against the Missouri delegation in Washington was supplemented by a conspiracy to capture the Democratic organization in the State.

The Democracy of the State was to be surprised and tricked into apparent harmony with cuckoo sentiment. The date of the convention was placed at a time when the farmers

could give little attention to politics.

The conference of county committeemen

was called to "fix" things in the county organizations for the convention. It was expected that office-holders, office-seekers

and political railroad attorneys would dominate at the conference and plans

would be laid and the campaign organized to manipulate the county organizations and primary meetings. This county leaders were to be whipped or seduced into line for an attack on the Congressional delegation and the convention.

But the conspiracy struck a snag. The Post-Dispatch exposed it. Gov. Stone denounced it. The Democratic press of the State made it known to the voters and voiced their protest. The honest Democrats of the State were aroused and the conspirators were notified that they would stand no trickery

and no cuckoo manipulation of the party organization. The protest of the voters was so vigorous that even a federal official was compelled to admit that 90 per cent of the Missouri

Democrats were opposed to any appearance of repudiation of the party's principles in order to "get together" with the Administration. The cuckoos were huffed and did not dare attempt their scheme.

They were compelled to acquiesce with the mass of Democrats, and the work of the conference petered out into such petty results

that many of the committeemen are wondering what they were here for.

The honest Democrats of the State, however, should not relax their vigilance.

They may be assured that the opportunity offered by the conference to poison the minds of county workers and "fix"

them for the cuckoo and corporation campaign was not neglected. No stone will be left unturned to accomplish the ends of the cuckoo politicians and the political railroad attorneys. Their political existence depends upon their success.

GRAND-LEADER

"IF CHRIST CAME TO CHICAGO!"

Look Out for the Greatest Sensation of the Nineteenth Century!

The famous editor of the "Review of Reviews," Wm. T. Stead of London, the most remarkable figure of reform in modern civilization, whose books have been sold all over the English-speaking world BY MILLIONS, has written this book for America, selecting Chicago as the typical city of corruption and of greatness.

And to Thus Prevent the Book From Reaching the Public!

From the New York World, Sunday, March 11, 1894.

Chicago has had much—and much that is contemptuous—to say about the well known English reformer and journalist, Mr. William T. Stead of London. Now Mr. Stead has his say about Chicago. The much that Mr. Stead has thought of Chicago has been compressed into the 400 pages of his widely-heralded forth-coming book, "If Christ Came to Chicago; or A Plea for Union of All Who Love in the Service of All Who Suffer," of which THE SUNDAY WORLD to-day publishes the advance sheets.

The book is a startling resume of Chicago life—solid, industrial, political, religious. Existing evils are exposed fearlessly, and the chief abettors are named openly, without regard to person or consequences.

In a word, "If Christ Came to Chicago" is a wholesale expose of Chicago, and, of its kind, the most sensational book of the decade.

The striking cover of this dynamite-loaded book soon to be exploded in the hardened heart of Chicago bears the figure of Christ, with one hand raised in rebuke against a half-score of typical Chicagoans, who have just risen from the gambling table, their arms laden with gold.

In the preface the author talks in this fashion: "If Christ Came to Chicago! It was under this title that, after a month's sojourn in the city, I summoned a conference in the Central Music Hall, which was held in November, 1893. Nothing was further from my thoughts at that time than publishing a book on Chicago.

"This little volume, originally projected as a mere reprint of the proceedings of a Sunday's conference, has assumed its present shape as the result of much consultation with many of the leading citizens of Chicago, who have been kind enough to encourage its publication.

"Throughout all my work of interrogation and condensation I have clung to the hypothesis which forms the keynote and the starting point of the whole: 'If Christ Came to Chicago.' . . . It has been a strangely interesting and most suggestive discussion. To men of the world, to busy administrators, to labor agitators, to the crook and to the harlot, the question, 'If he came to Chicago, what would he think of us and our lives?' was often strangely unfamiliar, and sometimes provoked the most incongruous replies. . . . To reinforce this growing sentiment, to strengthen this dawning consciousness of the reality of the citizen Christ, this book is given to the world.

LOWELL HIS INSPIRATION.

"The original conception of Christ coming to Chicago reached me, like most of my religio-philosophical notions, through the poetry of James Russell Lowell. The short poem which he styled 'A PARABLE' always seems to me to sum up in a page the vital essence of Christ's teaching. It is, as it were, a new chapter in the Gospel of St. John, done into English by the American poet-seer of the nineteenth century."

Then, in explanation of the title of the book the beautiful poem is quoted. Continuing, the author says: "As this poem suggested the title, so has it inspired every page in this book. . . . When once this idea is clearly and firmly grasped, when the condition of our fellow-citizens is recognized as the test of the measure of our faith in Christ, the religious aspect of civil politics acquires a new and supreme importance. For the improvement of the least of these, Christ's brethren, the assistance of the municipal authority is indispensable. The law must be invoked, if only as the school-master, to bring men to Christ. Before we can make men divine, we must cast out the devils who are brutalizing them out of even human semblance.

"But this cannot be accomplished excepting by the use of means which can only be wielded by the City Council. Hence, as it used to be said of old time, that all roads lead to Rome, so the more attentively we study the way out of our social quagmire the more clearly will it be discerned that all roads lead to the City Hall. Thus, it has come to pass that this little volume, begun with the simple object of recalling the conception of the Man Christ Jesus, has developed into an attempt to illustrate how a living faith in the citizen Christ would lead directly to the civic and social regeneration of Chicago."

The table of contents is suggestive of the surprises in store. The book is divided into five parts, under the following titles:

- "SOME IMAGES YE HAVE MADE OF ME."
- "CHRIST'S METEWAND (MEASURING-ROD) IN CHICAGO."
- "SATAN'S INVISIBLE WORLD DISPLAYED."
- "CHRIST'S CHURCH IN CHICAGO."
- "WHAT WOULD CHRIST DO IN CHICAGO?"
